STAINED FINISHES

Stain is applied to desired color. Next, sealer is applied to protect the finish and minimize warping and cracking of the hardwood. Sealer is then sanded to develop a bonding surface for the topcoating process. As a final step, a heat activated topcoat is applied to provide a beautiful and durable furniture finish. Finish availability varies by door style.

Natural Beauty of Wood

Wood is a natural product with variations in grain, texture and color. As a result of natural conditions, some species will develop characteristics such as burls, pecks, pin burls, shakes, split knots and mineral streaks to name a few. In some instances, even the color will vary greatly within a single piece of wood or cabinet component. A certain amount of variations is allowed and, in fact, is desirable. Doors with these types of characteristics are not to be considered defective. In addition, all wood will age overtime deepening or mellowing its tone. These characteristics are not to be misinterpreted as defects. Wood is a product of nature- and as such will display natural characteristics and variances that are unique to each and every cut. These characteristics are an integral part of the charm and beauty of real wood.
