DELIVERY LABOR – Jobsite deliveries are one-man tailgate delivery. The customer or job supervisor is required to assist in delivery. Deliveries will not be made to specific rooms of a home. However, the driver may unload to an area outside of the home, such as a garage, carport or ground level porch of the home that will allow one person handcart access if close truck access is available. Texas deliveries will be made with a two-man crew and will be unloaded and moved as far as the first dry area available in the apartment, home or business (threshold delivery).
